

3rd Transnational Meeting of Project Erasmus+ “Learning and teaching museums. Training program for volunteers in the Roman Museums”

Rome (Italy) June 13-14, 2019

June 13

Ore 9.00 Capitoline Superintendent of Cultural Heritage of Roma Capitale, Maria Vittoria Marini Clarelli

Ore 9.30 Vice President ICOM - Italy, Adele Compagna, Volunteers and museum professionals: functions, skills, responsibilities

Ore 10 Coordinator of the Imperial Forums Museum - Markets of Trajan, Capitoline Superintendency, Lucrezia Ungaro, Cultural volunteering in the Capitoline Superintendency

ore 10.30 Coffe break

ore 11 Director of the National Museum of Archeology of Lisbon, Antonio Carvalho ore 11.30 Patroness of the Roman Studies Foundation of Merida, Trinidad Nogales Basarrate ore 12 Prof. Doctor Mikel Asensio, Faculty of Psychology, Autonoma University of Madrid, The Project Evaluation Program

Ore 12.30 Debate

Ore 13 Light lunch

June 13 afternoon session

Ore 14.30 Alessia Trasatti, Stefano Marotti, The National Civil Service projects and the Museum

Ore 15.00 Paolo Vigliarolo, Luca Attenni, The experience of cultural volunteering

Ore 15.30 Silvia Costa, former President of the Culture and Education Commission of the European Parliament, The European Programs Creative Europe and Erasmus +

Ore 16.00 Antonio Carvalho, Patricia Batista, The profile evaluation report of the Cultural Volunteers of the National Museum of Archeology of Lisbon

Ore 16.30 Lucrezia Ungaro, Alessandra Balielo, The profile evaluation report of the Cultural Volunteers of the Capitoline Superintendency

Ore 17.00 Working group: Definition of objectives and criteria for the evaluation of good practice in the training and development work of cultural volunteers in the Museums

June 14

Ore 9.00 Nova Barrero, Pilar Caldera, Rafael Mesa, The profile evaluation report of the Cultural Volunteers of the National Museum of Roman Art of Merida

Ore 10 Working group: Analysis of the data

